EXCESS TRAFFIC VIOLATIONS

FORM
5359

REV. (10-2011)

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

Under Section 302.341, RSMo, if any city, town, or village obtains more than 35 percent of its annual operating general revenue from fines and court costs from traffic violations occurring on state highways, the city, town, or village must send the excess amount to the Director of the Department of Revenue.

For purposes of Section 302.341, RSMo, a "state highway" is any state or federal highway, including any highway that continues through the boundaries of the city, town, or village with a designated street name other than the state highway number.
